

13th edition of Festival TransAmériques

Step beyond the self 23 dance and theatre shows

Montreal, Tuesday, March 19, 2019 – On the occasion of the 13th edition of Festival TransAmériques, a refreshing gust of wind will ruffle complacent feathers, calling into question a world that no longer functions. A call for change, indeed revolution—both intimate and spectacular—this whirlwind of 23 contemporary dance and theatre pieces from here and elsewhere will take Montreal by storm from May 22 to June 4, 2019. With 9 world premières and 11 North American premières on offer at 13 different venues, FTA audiences will discern the force and sincerity of presentations made by artists from a dozen countries.

“The doubts raised by the times we are living in offer artists an incredible opportunity to venture into realms of liberation and emancipation. Things are changing at a dizzying pace. Stagnation is no longer possible. We must be shaken to the core by a gust of refreshing wind so that we can truly reach out to the Other. Throughout this 13th edition I invite you to step beyond the self, to listen, to adopt another perspective. We will thus be reinvigorated, transformed by contact with the world.”

— Martin Faucher, artistic director

The return to Festival stages of a number of artists from abroad is sure to delight Montrealers. From the opening show Tous des oiseaux by Wajdi Mouawad, these reunions will be rich in emotion. Works include a benevolent look at humanity by the Italian artists Daria Deflorian and Antonio Tagliarini (Quasi niente), the sensibility of the documentary approach taken by Stefan Kaegi and Rimini Protokoll (Granma. Trombones de La Havane) and the exuberant extravagance of Marlene Monteiro Freitas (Bacchantes - Prélude pour une purge).

Audiences will discover new lands, thanks to artists making their first appearance at the FTA, even in the North America for some of them: the South Korean Jaka Koo (Cuckoo) and the Polish director Anna Karasińska (Fantasia) in theatre, along with the Burkinabé choreographer Serge-Aimé Coulibaly (Kalakuta Republik), the South African Steven Cohen (Put Your Heart Under Your Feet... and Walk!), the Lebanese artist Ali Chahrour (May He Rise and Smell the Fragrance) and the Iranian Sorour Darabi (Savušun) in dance. And Torontonians Evan Webber and Frank Cox O'Connell will take over the revamped St. Jax Church in downtown Montreal to present Other Jesus.

Works by Quebec artists renowned for their highly original styles are also eagerly awaited: Constituons! by Christian Lapointe, CUTLASS SPRING by Dana Michel, Fear and Greed by Frédéric Gravel, *Genderf*cker* by Pascale Dreviron and Geoffrey Gaquère, Innervation by Martin Messier (a free outdoor show at place des Festivals featuring 60 dancers!), Rather a Ditch by Clara Furey, SOIFS Matériaux by Marie-Claire Blais, Stéphanie Jasmin and Denis Marleau, Speed Glue by Simon Grenier-Poirier and Dorian Nuskind-Oder, This Time Will Be Different by Lara Kramer and Émilie Monnet, and UNFOLD | 7perspectives by Danièle Desnoyers.

The Festival is also presenting remounts of two works by Montreal artists: L'affadissement du merveilleux by Catherine Gaudet and Hidden Paradise by Marc Béland and Alix Dufresne.

Savušun

Sorour Darabi

Teheran + Paris

May 24 to 26

Théâtre Prospero

Sorour Darabi draws on his Iranian roots to knit together an intimate tale of suffering and fear endured by marginalized bodies. Savušun perturbs and bewitches.

North American première

Hidden Paradise

Marc Béland + Alix Dufresne

Montreal

May 25 to 28

Monument-National, Studio Hydro-Québec

On February 9, 2015, radio host Marie-France Bazzo talked with the economist and philosopher Alain Deneault about tax evasion. Infuriated, Alix Dufresne and Marc Béland responded with a virulent, spirited choreography.

May 22 to
June 4, 2019

May He Rise and Smell the Fragrance

Ali Chahrour

Beirut

May 25 to 27

Place des Arts - Cinquième Salle

The Lebanese choreographer Ali Chahrour presents a primitive ceremony of staggeringly incandescent intensity. Between the sacred and the profane, the funeral procession begins.

North American première

Rather a Ditch

Clara Furey

Montreal

May 26 to 30

La Chapelle Scènes Contemporaines

Echoing the hypnotic Steve Reich album Different Trains, Clara Furey directs Céline Bonnier in a sensual, visceral solo full of the silence of what has been lost.

Put Your Heart Under Your Feet... And Walk!Steven Cohen

Johannesburg + Lille
May 27 to 29
Usine C

Put Your Heart... is a mournful poem of unbearable beauty, which follows the march of a survivor through a land of mourning. A singularly extreme ritualized cantata.

*North American première
Presented by Fugues

L'affadissement du merveilleuxCatherine Gaudet

Lorganisme, Montreal
May 28 to 31
Théâtre Rouge du Conservatoire

In her sublime new piece, the choreographer Catherine Gaudet probes the life force. An ode to the beauty of being alive, right up to death. Breathtaking.

UNFOLD | 7 perspectivesDanièle Desnoyers

Le Carré des Lombes, Montreal
May 30 to June 1
Édifice Wilder - Espace danse, Studio-Théâtre des Grands Ballets

Danièle Desnoyers tests the resistance of the body and the limits of balance. Magnetic and powerful, UNFOLD | 7 perspectives captivates with its finesse and its furious energy.

Co-produced by Festival TransAmériques + North American première

CUTLASS SPRINGDana Michel

Montreal
May 31 to June 3
Théâtre Prospero

Chameleon artist Dana Michel is hunting for a pulse. A piercing and unexpected look at the liberation of a body.

Co-produced by Festival TransAmériques + North American première

Fear and GreedFrédéric Gravel

DLD - Daniel Léveillé Danse, Montreal
June 1 to 4
Usine C

Frédéric Gravel in a solo: his outlandish vision of the world, his irony, his lengthy questions without answers, his singular style of movement, his guitar and his pop attitude.

Co-produced by Festival TransAmériques + World première

Speed Glue

Simon Grenier-Poirier + Dorian Nuskind-Oder

Montreal
June 1 to 4
La Chapelle Scènes Contemporaines

National ping pong champions play the game not to beat the opponent, but to play. For the beauty of the game. An intriguing ballet where everyone wins.

Co-produced by Festival TransAmériques + World première

Bacchantes - Prélude pour une purge

Marlene Monteiro Freitas

Mindelo + Lisbon
June 2 + 3
Monument-National, Salle Ludger-Duvernay

An ode to the imagination and the irrational. With thirteen dancers and musicians, Bacchantes delights both eye and ear, never running out of steam. Absolutely delicious.

*North American première
Presented by Infopresse

THEATRE SHOWS

Quasi niente

Daria Deflorian + Antonio Tagliarini

Rome
May 23 to 25
Usine C

Daria Deflorian and Antonio Tagliarini pursue their explorations of invisible lives. The Antonioni film Red Desert is the inspiration for a delicate depiction of a woman adrift.

*North American première
Presented by Hôtel Monville

Fantasia

Anna Karasińska

TR Warszawa, Warsaw
May 24 to 26
Centaur Theatre

Six actors, no script. Seated behind the auditorium, Anna Karasińska, a young vital force in Polish theatre, gives directions with a microphone. A laboratory of virtuoso improvisation.

North American première

Granma. Trombones de La Havane

Rimini Protokoll + Théâtre Maxim Gorki

Zurich + Berlin
May 28 to 30
Monument-National, Salle Ludger-Duvernay

Grandchildren of Fidel's Castro comrades employ the words of their grandparents to reconstruct the Cuban revolution... as they play the trombone.

Other Jesus

Evan Webber + Frank Cox-O'Connell
 EW&FCO + Public Recordings, Toronto
 May 29 to 31
 Église St Jax

In a church, a collective presents its offbeat vision of the life of a spiritual leader. Grunge pageant, church bazaar aesthetics - here is Other Jesus, circa 2019.

Co-produced by Festival TransAmériques

Cuckoo

Jaha Koo
 Seoul + Amsterdam
 May 30 to June 2
 Place des Arts, Cinquième Salle

A bittersweet portrait of the life of a young Korean, assisted by three Cuckoo brand rice cookers that talk, argue and sing songs. Atypical and disconcerting.

North American première

Genderf*cker

Pascale Drevillon + Geoffrey Gaquère
 Montreal
 May 31 to June 3
 Édifice Wilder - Espace danse, Espace Orange

An activist and performance artist, Pascale Drevillon explodes our vision of a binary world. Explore with her the wide spectrum of possible genders.

FTA PLAYGROUNDS

Free of charge and open to one and all, the FTA Playgrounds transform the energy of the performances into food for thought, encouraging a meeting of minds.

Meet the artists

After certain performances, the artists willingly engage in meeting with members of the audience for a friendly chat. Lively dialogue is encouraged by a team of moderators from diverse backgrounds.

Get-togethers at the QG

The sociologist Philippe Néméh-Nombré chats with Serge Aimé Coulibaly (Kalakuta Republik) and Émilie Monnet (This Time Will be Different) about the effects of colonialism on the body, during the discussion Decolonized Bodies. From Damascus to Paris: Theatre in Exile: The Syrian actor Jalal Altawil (Tous des oiseaux) evokes an artistic practice transformed by his political commitment. An indelible force of Quebec literature, Marie-Claire Blais (Soifs) shares her sharp-eyed view of the contemporary world in The Americas of Marie-Claire Blais.

Cuba: Art and Revolution: What is the legacy of the revolution now? What are the effects of the current political climate on culture and the arts? Frédérick Lavoie talks with the dramaturge Yohayna Hernandez (Granma. Trombones de La Havane). Pierrot Ross-Tremblay, an Innu sociologist and professor, analyzes how colonial structures are maintained and their impact on First Nations peoples in Haunted Nation or Canadian Apartheid. Imagining the Ideal Festival: Given these turbulent times, what should the festival of the future be? Artists, presenters and thinkers imagine their ideal festival. The Overview of FTA 2019 will feature many different voices, with critics and citizens providing lively feedback on festival presentations.

Parties at the Festival Bar

After the shows, festivalgoers inevitably end up at the QG. That means not only the opening and closing parties but also explosive happenings like Afrotonik or the Inspiration Fela Kuti and Cuba Libre nights with Rhythm & Hues. Reconnect with the strange during the POMPe Revival with underground nightlife queen Laura Boo. Test your skills against table tennis champions during Ping-pong ta vie under the amused gaze of the drag queen Barbada. 100Lux presents one of his famous urban dance competitions, and FTA and OFFTA unite to offer Hot-dogs pour tous. Montag will make sure you dance to the sounds of Disco disco and Northern Soul.

Films

From May 1 to 19, six films echoing the FTA program will be presented at the Cinémathèque québécoise: Memorias del subdesarrollo by Tomás Gutiérrez Alea, The Dragonfly of Chicoutimi by Jean-Claude Coulbois, Foxtrot by Samuel Maoz, Finding Fela! by Alex Gibney, Close-Up by Abbas Kiarostami and Il deserto rosso by Michelangelo Antonioni.

FTA playgrounds for professionals

These activities for artists and theatre and dance professionals include the 4th edition of the FTA Clinics, workshops with artists Steven Cohen (Johannesburg) and Anna Karasińska (Warsaw), and presentations/discussions: La Machinerie - Tool Kit and Agents and Producers - Forging Strong Links.

WELCOME TO THE QG, THE FESTIVAL BAR

Free admission at all times

Agora Hydro-Québec du Cœur des sciences de l'UQAM
